STUDENT AWARDS

MENTORING THE NEXT GENERATION OF SCHOLARS

SCOTIABANK AWARD RECIPIENTS

Nidhi Marulappa

I am absolutely honoured to be a recipient of the Scotiabank Undergraduate Award for Studies in Violence against Women and Children! I have just graduated from Western University with an Honours BHSc. - Double Major in Health Sciences and Women's Studies, and working with CREVAWC for the past two years of my journey has been truly amazing. In the following school year, I will be pursuing my Master of Public Health with a specialization in Health Promotion at the University of Toronto, where I hope to continue researching and working on the prevention of public health issues including VAW.

Brad Daly

I am absolutely honoured to be a recipient of the Scotiabank Undergraduate Award for Studies in Violence against Women and Children! I have just graduated from Western University with an Honours BHSc. - Double Major in Health Sciences and Women's Studies, and working with CREVAWC for the past two years of my journey has been truly amazing. In the following school year, I will be pursuing my Master of Public Health with a specialization in Health Promotion at the University of Toronto, where I hope to continue researching and working on the prevention of public health issues including VAW.

Nicole Youngson

I just graduated with a Masters in Counselling Psychology. Research for Violence Against Women is important to me because I believe research provides valuable information for implementation to prevent and manage gender-based violence. My advice for future students is to seize all opportunities that are presented to them in their journey and to value the process.

ELISABETH STEEL REURINK AWARD RECIPIENT

Vanessa Swales

I am greatly honoured and beyond appreciative to have been selected for the Elisabeth Steel Reurink Award. I have just completed my 3rd year at the School of Social Work at King's University College at Western University. Working with CREVAWC for the last few months has been an inspiring endeavor and has allowed me to gain a deeper understanding of VAW. Next year, I will complete my final year and obtain a Bachelor of Social Work. I hope to pursue a Master of Social Work in the future. My decision to work in this field has been guided by my experience and strong desire to create change. Continuing to learn, research, and work in the VAW sector will allow me to have an impact on a social issue that is important to me.

HELLMUTH PRIZE

"Peter Jaffe has been part of research discovery and the integration of new knowledge for almost half a century at Western (...) His work is pioneering for its focus on children exposed to domestic violence, implementation of justice and community responses to such violence, and international efforts to prevent domestic homicides (Mayne, 2019)<sup>1</sup>."

1. Mayne, Paul (2019) "Hellmuth Prize 2019 awarded to Jaffe, Sun". Available at: <https://news.westernu.ca/2019/05/hellmuth-prize-research-announced-2019/>. Accessed: September 3rd, 2020.

EVERYDAY HERO AWARD

SHELLY YEO, 2019 RECIPIENT

"With quiet strength and a clear and unwavering vision, Shelley has done what it takes to make women and children in this community and beyond safer."

NOTABLE CONTRACTS

THE INTERNATIONAL TRANSPORT WORKERS' FEDERATION WOMEN'S DEPARTMENT

The Centre has collaborated with the International Transport Workers' Federation (ITF) Women's Department on the development of a Women's Advocate program for Indian and Nepal, and on a national survey on the impacts of domestic violence in the workplace in India.

FACE – ONEINTHREEWOMEN NETWORK

This study investigates the gender-based violence occurring in the lives of workers and its impact at their workplace, with concrete qualitative and quantitative data for the 'OneInThreeWomen' network of companies created by the FACE Foundation and the Kering Foundation, joined by Korian, L'Oréal, BNP Paribas, Carrefour, SNCF and Lagardère through the ELLE Foundation.

RIO TINTO

Rio Tinto is an Anglo-Australian multinational company and one of the world's largest metals and mining corporations. The Centre has been contracted to develop and deliver in-person and online training in French and English to address domestic violence in the workplace for sites in North America.

WORLDWIDE EVENTS & OUR CENTRE

Women's Department on the development of a Women's Advocate program for Indian and Nepal

VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN & MASS SHOOTINGS

“How do we prevent deaths in similar circumstances in the future? What warning signs were missed and what interventions could have saved lives? To honour the lives lost in Nova Scotia, we all need to redouble our efforts. The whole community has to be part of the solution. It’s time to use what we know and take real action.”

- Centre Directors

COVID-19 AND VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN & CHILDREN

“There has been a rapid response to search for and to promote innovative strategies to cope with this pandemic. The Centre has been part of several initiatives to support services, enhance public and professional education, support workplaces and develop research on effective community responses.”

GIRLS BOOK CLUB

"I was very grateful to be invited to your event and had a pleasant day. My favorite part was hearing how the author responded to the various questions we were able to ask her. I also really enjoyed touring Western as it gave me great insight into what is offered and left much to consider when choosing what university to go to."

- Sarah Haygarth Gr. 11

BOYS BOOK CLUB

“This was a tremendous opportunity, for the male students at RMC, to take part and engage in a Book Club that spoke to a very important topic in today’s society. The author did an incredible job engaging the students in an insightful and productive manner in what proved to be a relaxed environment where the students felt comfortable and safe to share their thoughts and ideas.”

- Peter Ironside, RMC Teacher

FATHER'S DAY BREAKFAST

"We need to do more to engage men and boys as allies in this journey"
- Peter Jaffe

BREAKFAST FOR INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY

We were joined by colleagues across Western University Campus to celebrate.

#METOO MOVEMENT WITH TANARA BURKE

*Tarana certainly made history by starting the #MeToo movement!

HONOURABLE FILOMENA TASSI

We were thrilled to host the Honourable Filomena Tassi, MP, Minister of Labour, and Peter Fragiskatos MP, for London Centre North to learn about the work we do at the Centre.
